Mr. Jones of Atascosa for today, on motion of Mr. Leonard.

RELATIVE TO SUITS AGAINST THE STATE

Mr. Fisher offered the following resolution:

Whereas, There has been a large number of resolutions introduced allowing people to sue the State of Texas; and

Whereas, It is possible that some people may construe this permission as encouraging the claims or suits that are thus allowed; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in allowing these suits it is in no sense the purpose of the Legislature to favor or oppose these claims.

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. Vaughan offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend the resolution by adding the following: "Or to admit that the State is in any way liable therein."

The amendment was adopted.

The resolution, as amended, was then adopted.

RELATIVE TO RESOLUTION PERIOD

On motion of Mr. Laird, the House dispensed with the consideration of resolutions at this time.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,

Austin, Texas, October 12, 1933.

Hon. Coke Stevenson, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has adopted

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, October 12, 1933.

Hon. Coke Stevenson, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

S. B. No. 96, A bill to be entitled
"An Act authorizing the Chairman of the Board of Insurance Commissioners to employ not to exceed five (5) additional examiners, three (3) of whom shall be senior examiners, and two (2) of whom shall be assistant examiners, and requiring such examiners to give bond; fixing the compensation and traveling expenses of such examiners, and providing for the manner of payment, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 76, A bill to be entitled
"An Act providing for the levy and collection of special taxes in certain common and independent school districts in this State because of insolvency; and providing that the State Board of Education, by and with the advice of the Attorney General, shall determine when such district or districts are insolvent, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 108, A bill to be entitled
"An Act to amend Section 1, Chapter 47, General and Special Laws of the Forty-first Legislature, First Called Session, and Section 1, Chapter 140,
Regular Session, Forty-second Legislature, repealing said Sections 1 and 1-a, and re-enacting same with certain changes, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 111, A bill to be entitled
"An Act amending Section 7, of Chapter 13, of the Third Called Session of the Forty-second Legislature, as amended by Senate Bill No. 300, passed by the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature, by adding thereto Section 1-a, relating to payment of refunding eligible obligations of counties and defined road districts, and declaring an emergency."

The Senate has adopted

S. C. R. No. 23, Relating to the unexpended balance of appropriation provided in Senate Bill No. 242.

Respectfully,
BOB BARKER,
Secretary of the Senate.

HOUSE BILL NO. 176 ON THIRD READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its third reading and final passage,

H. B. No. 176, A bill to be entitled "An Act making an appropriation to pay deficiencies and bills for the Adjutant General's Department out of the General Fund; authorizing payments of such claims on the taking effect of this Act."

The bill was read third time.

Mr. Engelhard offered the following amendment to the bill:

"Section 1. That the following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated out of the General Fund of the State of Texas, to pay deficiencies and bills for the Adjutant General's Department, as herein enumerated."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Engelhard offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 176 by inserting, at the end thereof, the following:

"Section 2. That the Comptroller of Public Accounts is hereby authorized and directed to issue a warrant or warrants on the State Treasury in favor of each of the persons, firms, or corporations named hereinabove in the amounts set opposite their respective names, and shall mail or deliver to each of said persons, firms, or corporations, at their respective addresses, warrant or warrants in payment of said claim or claims, and said persons, firms, or corporations shall duly receipt the Comptroller for said warrant or warrants, or payment of said claim or claims."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Engelhard offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 176 by striking out, on page 3, lines 8 and 9.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Beck offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 176 by inserting two sections, to be numbered 3-a and 3-b, respectively, Sections 3-a and 3-b to read as follows:

"Section 3-a. There is hereby appropriated, out of the General Revenue of the State of Texas, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), not otherwise appropriated, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of reimbursing the general fund of the counties of Texas for moneys actually expended in the eradication and extermination of cattle ticks, prior to the year 1929.

"Section 3-b. In order to recover the funds so expended, it shall be necessary for the county commissioners court of each county hereby affected, to furnish the Comptroller of Public Accounts of this State a sworn itemized statement of expenses properly and regularly incurred in the eradication of ticks, including salaries and other expenses for local inspectors, labor, and material, and other expenses incident to the construction of dipping vats, expenses incurred in the purchase and distribution of dipping materials, and all other expenses incurred by such counties. Such itemized accounts shall be signed and attested by the county judge, one county commissioner, and the county auditor, and if there be no county auditor, then the county judge and the county commissioners of the county filing such claim. Such claim shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness, and same shall be allowed and paid on regular warrants by the State Treasurer and Comptroller of Public Accounts, as are all other claims and accounts; provided, that such claims have been filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts within two years after the taking effect of this Act."

BECK,
RUSSELL,
REED of Bowie,
CROSSLEY,
BURNS,
DANIEL.

Mr. Camp raised a point of order on further consideration of the amendment, on the ground that the amendment is not germane to the bill.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

House Bill No. 176 was then passed.

HOUSE BILL NO. 179 ON SECOND
READING

Mr. Beck moved that the House Rules, relative to the consideration of bills, seventy-two hours and forty-eight hours before final adjournment, be suspended for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 179 at this time.

The motion prevailed.

The Speaker then laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 179, A bill to be entitled "An Act making appropriations to pay miscellaneous claims out of the General Fund; authorizing the payment of certain sums out of the Highway Fund; authorizing payment of said miscellaneous claims on the taking effect of this Act."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Beck offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 179 by inserting two sections, to be numbered 2 and 3, respectively, Sections 2 and 3 to read as follows:

"Section 2. There is hereby appropriated, out of the General Revenue of the State of Texas, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), not otherwise appropriated, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of reimbursing the general fund of the counties of Texas for moneys actually expended in the eradication and extermination of cattle ticks, prior to the year 1929.

"Section 3. In order to recover the funds so expended, it shall be necessary for the county commissioners court of each county hereby affected, to furnish the Comptroller of Public Accounts of this State a sworn itemized statement of expenses properly and regularly incurred in the eradication of ticks, including salaries and other expenses for local inspectors, labor, and material, and other expenses incident to the construction of dipping vats, expenses incurred in the purchase and distribution of dipping materials, and all other expenses incurred by such counties. Such itemized accounts shall be signed and attested by the county judge, one county commissioner, and the county auditor, and if there be no county auditor, the county judge and the county commissioners of the county filing such claim. Such claim shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness, and same shall be allowed and paid on regular warrants by the State Treasurer and Comptroller of Public Accounts, as are other claims and accounts; provided, that such claims have been filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts within two years after the taking effect of this Act."

Question recurring on the amendment, yeas and nays were demanded.

The amendment was lost by the following vote:

The Speaker then laid House Bill No. 179 before the House on its third reading and final passage.

The bill was read third time, and was passed.

SENATE BILL NO. 52 ON SECOND READING

Mr. Thomas moved that the Seventy-two-hour Rule and the Forty-eight-hour Rule be suspended, to take up, for consideration at this time,

S. B. No. 52, A bill to be entitled "An Act making an appropriation to reimburse growers and producers of cotton for expenses incurred during the years of 1929 through 1932, by reason of the establishment by the State of Texas of regulations requiring such growers and producers to pay for fumigation of cotton and sterilization of seed, and also to pay expenses of the Compensation Claim Board in carrying out the provisions of this Act; providing no claim shall be paid from this fund unless same has been allowed by the Compensation Claim Board or by judgment as provided in Chapter 111, Title 4, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, and as provided in Chapter 42, Acts of the Regular Session, Forty-first Legislature; providing none of said fund shall be used to reimburse anyone for land not planted to cotton by order of the Pink Boll Worm Commission creating a non-cotton zone; providing that the certificate of the Chairman of the Board, approved by the State Commissioner of Agriculture shall be sufficient evidence to the Comptroller from which he shall audit the claims of persons, firms, and corporations, and members of the Compensation Claim Board for the issuance of warrants to cover the respective amounts; providing if any part of this Act is declared unconstitutional or invalid, it shall not affect the validity of the remainder; providing no money herein appropriated shall be paid for commissions or fees to any person for securing passage of this bill; providing if money herein appropriated is insufficient to pay the claims of all growers and producers in full, then it shall be prorated, and declaring an emergency."

The motion prevailed.

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and it was read second time.

Mr. Walker moved the previous question on the pending amendment, and the bill, and the main question was ordered.

Mr. Beck offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate Bill No. 52 by inserting two sections, to be numbered 3-a and 3-b, respectively, Sections 3-a and 3-b to read as follows:

"Section 3-a. There is hereby appropriated, out of the General Revenue of the State of Texas, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), not otherwise appropriated, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of reimbursing the general fund of the counties of Texas for moneys actually expended in the eradication and extermination of cattle ticks, prior to the year 1929.

"Section 3-b. In order to recover the funds so expended, it shall be necessary for the county commissioners court of each county hereby affected, to furnish the Comptroller of Public Accounts of this State a sworn itemized statement of expenses properly and regularly incurred in the eradication of ticks, including salaries and other expenses for local inspectors, labor, and material, and other expenses incident to the construction of dipping vats, expenses incurred in the purchase and distribution of dipping materials, and all other expenses incurred by such counties. Such itemized accounts shall be signed and attested by the county judge, one county commissioner, and the county auditor, and if there be no county auditor, then the county judge and the county commissioners of the county filing such claim. Such claim shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness, and same shall be allowed and paid on regular warrants by the State Treasurer and Comptroller of Public Accounts, as are all other claims and accounts; provided, that such claims have been filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts within two years after the taking effect of this Act."

Mr. Alexander raised a point of order on further consideration of the amendment by Mr. Beck, on the ground that the amendment is not germane to the bill.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

Mr. Beck moved to reconsider the vote by which the previous question was ordered, on the pending amendment and the passage of the bill to third reading.

Mr. Van Zandt moved to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table was lost by the following vote:

PRESENTATION TO HON. OTIS DUNAGAN AND MISS LOUISE
THOMAS

Mr. Latham offered the following resolution:

Where, Friday, October 13, 1933, will mark an event in the lives of two of our friends that will be remembered for life by them; and

Whereas, Upon the advent of such a venture it is the opinion of the House of Representatives of the Forty-third Legislature that best wishes should mark such an event; and

Whereas, Otis Dunagan, our distinguished Member from Upshur County, and Louise Thomas, of Fort Worth, who has served the House well in the work it had to do, are the two principals in this memorable event; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-third Legislature, That the House pause in its labors to express its good wishes to the principals, and present to them a gift evidencing the high esteem in which it holds them, and wishing for them the best of life's treasures.

LATHAM,
TURLINGTON,
WELLS,
HEAD.

The resolution was read second time.

On motion of Mr. Wells, the names of all the Members of the House were added to the resolution as signers thereof:

Signed—Stevenson, Speaker; Adamson, Aikin, Alexander, Alsup, Anderson, Baker, Barrett, Barron, Beck,

The resolution was then unanimously adopted.

Mr. Latham then presented Hon. Otis Dunagan and Miss Louise Thomas with a set of silver; a gift from the Members of the House.

Mr. Latham also presented Miss Thomas and Mr. Dunagan with a marriage license, stating that it was a gift from Hon. Walter C. Holloway.

Miss Thomas and Mr. Dunagan then addressed the House, thanking the donors for the gifts.

RELATIVE TO SENATE BILL
NO. 64

Mr. Pope moved that Senaté Bill No. 64, reported adversely with a minority favorable report, be printed.

Mr. Leonard raised a point of order on further consideration of the motion, on the ground that notice of a minority report was not properly filed.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker signed, in the presence of the House, after giving due notice thereof, and its caption had been read, the following enrolled bill:

H. B. No. 12, "An Act amending and re-enacting Subsections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, of Chapter 166, of the Acts of the Forty-third Legislature, being House Bill No. 167, pages 428-433, of the Session Acts of the Forty-third Legislature; appropriating from State funds $1,260 to defray operating expenses of the Racing Commission for the period ending December 31, 1933; providing that the appropriations made by the Forty-third Legislature for the Department of Agriculture shall not be drawn upon unless the funds in the 'Special Racing Fund' shall be insufficient or unavailable; creating a Racing Commission of three members, to consist of the Commissioner of Agriculture, State Tax Commissioner, and a chairman to be appointed by the Governor; authorizing the Commission to appoint a secretary and other officers and employees; fixing the compensation of the Commissioners and certain employees, and defining the powers and duties of the Commissioners; etc., and declaring an emergency."

RECESS

On motion of Mr. Vaughan, the House, at 12 o'clock m., took recess to 2 o'clock p. m., today.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House met at 2 o'clock p. m., and was called to order by the Speaker.

BILL ORDERED PRINTED

On motion of Mr. Kayton, Senate Bill No. 73, reported adversely with a minority favorable report, was ordered printed in mimeograph form and not otherwise printed.

PROVIDING FOR THE SUSPENSION OF JOINT RULE XXIII

Mr. Johnson of Dimmit offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 53, Providing for the suspension of Joint Rule XXIII.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that Rule XXIII, of the Joint Rules, be, and is hereby, suspended, so as to allow the House to take up and consider, until finally passed, House Bill No. 150.

The resolution was read second time, and was adopted.

SENATE BILL NO. 103 ON SECOND READING

(By Unanimous Consent)

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 103, A bill to be entitled "An Act to provide for the granting of charters for corporations, and the renewal thereof, for the purchase, sale, and distribution of water and water rights, and the building of pipe lines, plants, and the equipment thereof; to provide the conditions under which charters for the same may be granted, and to authorize such corporations to borrow money from the Government of the United States of America or any agency thereof, and to issue its notes and bonds as evidence of its indebtedness; to authorize the issuance of stock on which shall be paid no dividends, and to provide for the distribution of the profits of such corporation to towns, cities, and other political subdivisions of the State, as well as private corporations and individuals who shall be customers of such corporation in the purchase of water, said dividends to be issued in direct proportion to the amount of business transacted by such contractees with said corporation; to provide the method of selecting the governing body and officers of such corporation; to authorize such corporation to lease, purchase, own, and hold such property, real and personal, as may be required for its purposes; to limit the salary and expenses to be paid to the executive officers and legal representatives of such corporation; to grant to such corporation power of eminent domain to obtain right of ways for pipe lines and other necessary sites, and to authorize such corporations to make contracts for the sale and delivery of water in exchange for right of ways, if in the judgment of the board of directors of said corporation the same be necessary; and declare an emergency requiring this bill to become operative immediately."

The bill was read second time, and was passed to third reading.

SENATE BILL NO. 50 ON SECOND READING

On motion of Mr. Moore, the Seventy-two-hour Rule and the Forty-eight-hour Rule were suspended, for the purpose of taking up, for consideration at this time,

S. B. No. 50, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Chapter 13, Acts of the Third Called Session of the Forty-second Legislature, as amended by Chapter 136, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature, by adding thereto a Section to be known as Section 7-a, providing that the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness shall keep adequate minutes of its proceedings and make semi-annual reports to each county and giving the commissioners court of any county the right to inspect and audit the records of said board and of the State Treasurer, and requiring said Board of County and District Road Indebtedness to make annual reports to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and providing for the return to each county affected of all moneys and securities belonging to it, in the event Chapter 13, Acts of the Third Called Session of the Forty-second Legislature, as amended, shall be repealed or become inoperative for any reason; and providing that the funds of the several counties shall be deposited in State depositories and draw interest for said counties, and that interest earned on securities be credited to the owner county; and providing for the exemption from certain named provisions of said Chapter 13, as amended, of any county having a depository secured by surety bonds or which has deposited adequate securities, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House; it was read second time, and was passed to third reading.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, October 12, 1933.
Hon. Coke Stevenson, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

S. B. No. 39, A bill to be entitled
"An Act to define, license, and regulate loan brokers and the business of loan brokers in amounts of $500 or less, secured or unsecured; providing for a license fee; providing that application for license shall be in writing under oath; providing for the appointment of an agent to accept service in certain suits; providing for service upon the county judge in certain suits; whether such loan brokers are licensed or not licensed; providing for the filing of a bond by loan brokers for the use of any and all persons who may have cause of action under this Act, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 85, A bill to be entitled
"An Act authorizing the temporary closing and suspension of State banks, bank and trust companies, under certain conditions, for the purpose of conserving the assets thereof and formulating and executing a plan of liquidation or reorganization; providing for the appointment of a depositors committee to examine and investigate the condition of the suspended bank and to formulate and recommend a plan of liquidation or reorganization, and permitting such plan, when approved by the Banking Commissioner of Texas, and depositors and other creditors of the bank representing at least 75 per cent in amount of its total deposits and other liabilities, authorizing the proper administrative official, officials, board, or tribunal in charge of deposits or funds belonging to the State of Texas,

any county, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 89, A bill to be entitled
"An Act to provide for holding a Texas Centennial Celebration or celebrations in 1936; to provide for meeting requirements for such celebration or celebrations on the part of places desiring same; to create a Texas Centennial Commission with plenary powers to make all contracts in connection with such celebration or celebrations; to provide for the organization of such Commission, the time of service of same, and the filling of vacancies; to provide for the incorporation of such Texas Centennial Commission; to provide for compensation for members of same, and declaring an emergency."

Respectfully,

BOB BARKER,
Secretary of the Senate.

SENATE BILLS ON FIRST READING

The following Senate bills, received from the Senate today, were laid before the House, read severally first time, and referred to the appropriate

SENATE BILL NO. 70 ON SECOND READING

(By Unanimous Consent)

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 70, A bill to be entitled "An Act to authorize certain counties, cities, towns, independent school districts, common school districts, water improvement districts, water control and improvement district, navigation districts, drainage districts, and other municipal corporations; and non-profit private corporations, authorized and existing under the Constitution and laws of this State, to borrow money, and to receive grants and other aid from the Government of the United States, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Leonard offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate Bill No. 70 by adding at the end of the last sentence in Section 2, the following:

"Provided, however, that the powers to issue warrants or other obligations by the governing boards of the public municipal corporations herein enumerated or referred to shall be contingent upon an affirmative authorizing vote by a majority of the qualified voters voting in an election called for that purpose under conditions set forth in the statutes governing special elections, except where the warrants or other evidences of obligations are issued for funds to be used to repair damage caused by any tropical hurricane during the year 1933."

The amendment was adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House, the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes made in the body of the bill.

Senate Bill No. 70 was then passed to third reading.

SENATE BILL NO. 70 ON THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 97 ON SECOND
READING

(By Unanimous Consent)

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 97, A bill to be entitled "An Act creating a water conservation and reclamation district as a public corporation under Section 59, Article XVI, of the Constitution of Texas, to be known as 'The Guadalupe River Authority'; defining the territory of such district; prescribing the purpose, authority, powers and privileges of such corporation; providing for directors of the corporation, their term of office, their compensation, their powers and duties, and for the employment by them of a secretary, manager, attorneys, auditors, engineers and other assistants; providing that the corporation may enter into contracts and other obligations, acquire and hold property, sue and be sued in its corporate name, for the borrowing of money, the issuance of bonds, notes, and other obligations, and encumbering and pledging of the property of the corporation; providing for the deposit, withdrawal, and disbursement of funds, financial statements, and disposition of net earnings, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Weinert offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate Bill No. 97 by adding at the end of Section 2, the following:

"Notwithstanding any of the provisions contained in this Act, or in any of the statutes herein mentioned, or referred to, the purposes of the corporation shall be solely the control, storing, preservation, and distribution of water, and it shall engage in no other business."

The amendment was adopted.

Senate Bill No. 97 was then passed to third reading.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, October 12, 1933.
Hon. Coke Stevenson, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

H. B. No. 64, A bill to be entitled "An Act to prohibit the sale or lease of a machine gun or submachine gun, and defining same, or the barter, exchange, or trade of same to any person, except he be the Adjutant General of the State of Texas, the duly qualified and commissioned sheriff of a county, a duly qualified and commissioned constable of a county, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 62, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 2688, Title 49, Chapter 11, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Acts, 1931, House Bill No. 904, Chapter 357, General Laws of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature (same likewise appearing printed as House Bill No. 904, Chapter 212, page 426, Special Laws of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature), and as further amended by Acts, 1932, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 68, A bill to be entitled "An Act making an appropriation out of the General Revenue of the State of Texas for the balance of the fiscal year ending August 31, 1934, to be used by the State Parks Board, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 91, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 3369, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, correcting the same by inserting the words 'testamentary or' after the word 'letters' in the last sentence thereof, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 92, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Articles 4195-a, Vernon's Annotated Texas Civil Statutes, correcting the same by inserting the word 'ward' in place of the word 'minor,' and by inserting the number '4198' in place of the number '4197,' and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 107, A bill to be entitled "An Act making an appropriation for one district supervisor for the State Department of Vocational Education, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 99, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the State Board of Education in certain instances to issue and sell deficiency certificates bearing interest at a rate of not more than 4 per cent per annum from issuance until same are called for payment against the State Available School Fund; regulating and limiting the issuance and sale of such certificates, and declaring an emergency."

The Senate has adopted

H. C. R. No. 53, Relative to suspension of the Joint Rule XXIII, in order to consider, until finally passed, House Bill No. 150.

The Senate has refused to concur in House amendments to Senate Bill No. 57, and requests the appointment of a conference committee. The following have been appointed on the part of the Senate: Senators Cousins, Sanderford, Holbrook, Woodward, and Hopkins.

The Senate has concurred in House amendments to Senate Bill No. 70 by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 1.

Respectfully,

BOB BARKER,
Secretary of the Senate.

HOUSE BILL NO. 150 ON SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 71 ON SECOND
READING

(By Unanimous Consent)

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 71, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 5155, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended by the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature, 1933, providing for payment of wages semi-monthly; amending Article 5157, providing for penalty; repealing Article 5158 and Article 5159, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925; excepting municipal corporations and wages earned in agricultural and stock raising pursuits, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Laird offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate Bill No. 71 by adding after Section 3 the following, to be known as Section 3-a:

"Section 3-a. The supervision of the enforcement of this Act is hereby placed with the State Board of Labor Statistics, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, and the other duties of that Bureau, there is hereby appropriated out of the unappropriated and unexpended balance received by that Department from licenses and other fees under the provisions of House Bill No. 832, Chapter 241, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature and deposited with the State Treasury to the credit of the Boxing and Wrestling Enforcement Fund the sum of ten thousand nine hundred dollars ($10,900) for the purpose of the employing of four additional deputies to the Labor Commissioner, and/or inspectors, and one clerk, each to receive a salary of one thousand three hundred and eighty dollars ($1,380) per annum, the balance to be used for traveling and other expenses of this Department. The amount hereby appropriated shall be exclusive of the six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) appropriated under the provisions of House Bill No. 832, of the Regular Session of the Forty-third Legislature, and it shall in no way interfere with the purposes provided for in that bill."

The amendment was adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House, the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes made in the body of the bill.

Senate Bill No. 71 was then passed to third reading.

MOTION TO TAKE UP SENATE BILL NO. 71

Mr. Laird moved that the constitutional rule, requiring bills to be read on three several days, be suspended, and that Senate Bill No. 71 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion was lost (not receiving the necessary four-fifths vote) by the following vote:

SENATE BILL NO. 69 ON SECOND READING

On motion of Mr. Dunlap, the Seventy-two-hour Rule, the Forty-eight-hour Rule, and the regular order of business were suspended, to take up, for consideration at this time,

S. B. No. 69, A bill to be entitled "An Act creating Valley Conservation and Reclamation District, embracing the Counties of Cameron, Hidalgo, and Willacy; defining powers and purposes for which said District is created; providing for appointment of directors, and defining their powers and duties; authorizing said district to contract with and to receive grants from United States Government or any of its agencies or departments and with the State of Texas and its agencies and departments; making an appropriation to defray expenses of surveys, etc.; authorizing State Departments of Reclamation and Health and the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission to co-operate with, aid, and assist said District, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and it was read second time.

Mr. Burns offered the following amendments to the bill:

(1)

Amend Senate Bill No. 69 by striking out, in Section 6, and wherever else they may appear in the bill, the words or figures "$20,000," and substituting therefor the words or figures "$15,000."

(2)

Amend Senate Bill No. 69 by striking out, in Section 6, and wherever else they may appear in said bill, the words "employment of counsel and other assistants."

The amendments were severally adopted.

By unanimous consent of the House, the caption of the bill was ordered amended to conform to all changes made in the body of the bill.

Senate Bill No. 69 was then passed to third reading.

MOTION TO TAKE UP SENATE BILL NO. 69

Mr. Dunlap moved that the constitutional rule, requiring bills to be read on three several days, be suspended, and that Senate Bill No. 69 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 57

On motion of Mr. Bedford, the House granted the request of the Senate for the appointment of a conference committee on Senate Bill No. 57.

In accordance with the above action, the Speaker announced the appointment of the following committee: Messrs. McDougald, McKee, Van Zandt, Celaya, and Bedford.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, October 12, 1933.

Hon. Coke Stevenson, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

S. B. No. 81, A bill to be entitled "An Act making an appropriation of two thousand five hundred dollars for the building, installing, and operating of a new cotton lint sterilizing machine for treating baled cotton in the pink boll worm infested area of the State as a clearance of trade on such cotton, in compliance with the Pink Boll Worm Law, Title 4, Volume 1, Chapter 3, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 93, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the commissioners court in any county having a population of not less than 30,550 and not more than 30,600, according to the last preceding United States Census, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 95, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 2673, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, relating to the purchase of bonds by the State Board of Education, and providing that the State Board of Education may purchase school bonds from the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 113, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Section 4, of Chapter 13, Acts of First Called Session of the Thirty-ninth Legislature, and declaring an emergency."

The Senate has concurred in House amendments to Senate Bill No. 44 by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 0.

Respectfully,
BOB BARKER,
Secretary of the Senate.

RELATIVE TO SENATE BILL NO. 97

Mr. Van Zandt moved to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 97 was finally passed.

Mr. Hoskins raised the point of order that the motion to reconsider the vote comes to late, in that the bill has been returned to the Senate.

The Speaker sustained the point of order.

MOTION TO TAKE UP SENATE BILL NO. 87

Mr. Camp moved that the Seventy-two-hour Rule, the Forty-eight-hour Rule, and the regular order of business be suspended, to take up, for consideration at this time, Senate Bill No. 87.

The motion was lost.

SENATE BILLS ON FIRST READING

The following Senate bills, received from the Senate, were laid before the House, read severally first time, and referred to the appropriate committees, as follows:

Senate Bill No. 113, to the Committee on Education.

Senate Bill No. 95, to the Committee on Education.

Senate Bill No. 99, to the Committee on Education.

Senate Bill No. 62, to the Committee on Education.

Senate Bill No. 107, to the Committee on Appropriations.

TO RECALL SENATE BILL NO. 97 FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION

Mr. Van Zandt offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 54, To recall Senate Bill No. 97 for further consideration.

Whereas, Senate Bill No. 97 has passed the House finally and been returned to the Senate; and

Whereas, The House desires to consider further Senate Bill No. 97; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the House, the Senate concurring, That Senate Bill No. 97 be returned to the House.

VAN ZANDT,
MOORE,
SULLIVANT.

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. Weinert moved to table the resolution.

The motion to table was lost by the following vote:

GOOD, Acting Chairman.

In Memory of Mr. Fletcher Sullivan

Mr. Latham offered the following resolution:

Whereas, On October 11, 1933, Mr. Fletcher Sullivan, of Flatonia, Texas, brother-in-law of our beloved Speaker and his wife, was called to his eternal reward; and

Whereas, This untimely death has left wounds in the hearts of his family and friends that only time can heal; and

Whereas, The relation of the Speaker to the Members of the Texas House of Representatives is such that his sorrows are our sorrows, and the Members of the Forty-third Legislature deplore any circumstance that brings sadness to him and his; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-third Legislature, That we extend our deepest and sincerest sympathy to the family and friends of Mr. Fletcher Sullivan; and that our admonition to his bereaved family be "Look to those things higher up in this hour of gloom," and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an appropriate floral offering to the home; and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the members of the family of the deceased; and that it be spread upon the Journal of the House of Representatives in his honor and memory.

LATHAM,
McKEE,
MORSE,

ZAN ZANDT.
WOOD,
GRAVES.

The resolution was read second time.

On motion of Mr. Walker, the names of all the Members of the House were added to the resolution as signers thereof:
